

PROPOSED AGENDA

DAY 1: GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR GLOBAL HEALTH

Time	Session	Proposed Presenter(s)
Chair: Marissa Becker, Professor, University of Manitoba
11:15-12:00	Light lunch and Registration
12:00-12:10	Welcome and opening remarks	Erin Love, Program Manager, CAHR Andrew Matejcic, Executive Director, CAHR
12:10-12:20	Overview of workshop objectives	Marissa Becker, Professor, University of Manitoba
12:20-12:50	CIHR Framework for Action on Global Health Research	Suzete Dos Santos, Assistant Director, CIHR-Institute of Infection and Immunity
12:50-13:20	Sex and gender considerations in global health	Angela Kaida, Scientific Director, CIHR-Institute of Gender and Health
13:20-13:50	Leveraging cross-contextual learnings to advance health equity: Reflections from the J. C. Wilt Infectious Diseases Research Centre	Paul Sandstrom, Director, National Sexually Transmitted and Blood Borne Infections Laboratory, PHAC
13:50-14:15	Break
Chair: Souradet Shaw, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba
14:15-14:45	The evolution of global health: Definitions, roles, and power	Robert Lorway, Professor, University of Manitoba
14:45-15:15	The decolonization of global health	Shashika Bandara, Postdoctoral Fellow, McGill University
15:15-16:15	Panel discussion: Navigating disruptions in diverse global health contexts	Facilitator: Ties Boerma, Professor, University of Manitoba Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shashika Bandara, Postdoctoral Fellow, McGill University Patricia Garcia, Professor, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia Joshua Kimani, Partners for Health and Development in Africa Robert Lorway, Professor, University of Manitoba Lyle McKinnon, Associate Professor, University of Manitoba
16:15-16:35	Audience Q&A with panelists
16:35-16:45	Wrap Up	Souradet Shaw, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba

DAY 2: EQUITY IN PROCESSES AND OUTCOMES FOR GLOBAL HEALTH RESEARCH

Time	Session	Proposed Presenters
Chair: Lyle McKinnon, Associate Professor, University of Manitoba
8:30-9:00	Breakfast and Registration
9:00-9:30	Accountability in global health research to ensure equitable outcomes in HIV/STBBI	Patricia García, Professor, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia
9:30-10:00	Reflections on how fundamental biomedical researchers can contribute to global health	Keith Fowke, Professor and Head, Department of Medical Microbiology and Infectious Diseases, University of Manitoba
10:00-10:20	Vision for the National Microbiology Laboratory’s role in global health research (TBC)	Jason Kindrachuk, Vice President, National Microbiology Laboratory (TBC)
10:20-11:20	Round Table Discussion: Reconciling (academic) career expectations with realities of global health research	Facilitator: Lisa Lazarus, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba Discussants: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Geneviève Boily-Larouche, Managing Director, Global Strategy Lab, York University• Souleymane Diabate, Associate Professor, University of Laval• Carmen Logie, Professor, University of Toronto• Souradet Shaw, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba• Aida Sivo, Head, Viral STI Section, National Microbiology Laboratory
11:20-11:35	Break
Chair: Leigh McClarty, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba
11:35-12:20	Breakout group discussions with Round Table discussants
12:20-13:20	Lunch
13:20-13:50	Opportunities and roles for Canadian HIV/STBBI researchers in global health	James Blanchard, Executive Director and Professor, Institute for Global Public Health, University of Manitoba
13:50-14:10	Audience Q&A / Plenary discussion
14:10-14:20	Wrap Up	Andrew Matejcic, Executive Director, CAHR Leigh McClarty, Assistant Professor, University of Manitoba